Westward Through the Rockies.

The traveler, tourist or business man is wise when he selects the Rio Grande Western Railway "Great Salt Lake Route" for his route to the Pacific Coast. It is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City, and in addition to the glimpse it affords of the Temple City, the Great Salt Lake and picturesque Salt Lake and Utah Valley, it affords the choice of three distinct routes through the mountains and the most magnificent scenery in the world.

On all Pacific Coast tourist tickets, stopovers are granted at Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou, Leadville, Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake City, Ogden and other points of interest. Double daily train service and through Pullman and Tourist sleeping cars between Denver and San Francisco and Los Angeles.

For illustrated pamphlets descriptive of the "Great Salt Lake Route," write L. B. EVELAND, Traveling Passenger Agent, 305 West Ninth street, Kansas City, or F. A. WADLEIGH, General Passenger Agent Salt Lake City.

Tom Hughes has been appointed postmaster at Tucson.

A. E. Joscelyn has moved his Educator to Kingman, where he is engaged in teaching school.

District clerk's bonds must be filed in the office of the territorial secretary.

The waters are rising in the Salton basin, coming in from the gulf. If it continues the basin may become a sea again.

Tom Holland was caught in a cave in the Norma mine, White Hills, and received injuries from which he died two days later.

The report is confirmed that rich ledges of high grade free milling ore has been discovered in the Yaqui country.

The Southern Pacific has asked the western roads to make Tucson, Arizona, a tourist point, and apply the same rates to it as are now in effect to Phenix.

Charles Goodnough was found dead in his cabin at Gold Basin. At first foul play was suspected, but an autopsy revealed the fact that he had died from heart disease.

A 14-year old boy, named Spafford, met with an accident north of Safford. He had been out hunting and in some way the gun was discharged, the ball passing through his hand. It is feared that the hand will have to be amputated.

The Spanish paper, La Publico Opinion, published at Clifton, came to a tragic end recently. The whole plant was thrown into the river by a crowd of indignant Mexicans and the Publisher, Pedro de la Loma will go to Albuquerque.

The country around Harshaw has been flooded with rain of late. Last week the mail carrier narrowly escaped drowning. He was caught in a flood below Harshaw, his buckboard upset and the mail sacks washed down the stream.

The Southern Pacific company has announced a reduction in the price of mileage tickets. Hereafter three thousand mile tickets will be sold for $25 without the deposit and rebate, which has previously been insisted upon.

District Attorney Ross of Yavapai county has filed a petition in the district court of Maricopa county praying for an injunction to issue, directed to the Loan Commission, and prohibiting the Commission to fund the famous Yavapai county bonds.

S. P. Clark, proprietor of the Green Mountain Falls hotel, in Colorado, a summer resort, and formerly manager of the St. James at Denver, has arrived at Phenix and will conduct the Ford hotel during the winter and spring months, closing on June 1.

A cutting affray occurred at Bisbee recently between Arthur Finney, a one legged gambler and a Mexican. The Mexican received an ugly gash across the abdomen. Finney was arrested and lodged in jail at Tombstone. They quarreled over a senorita.

The wealth of Coconino county for the year 1897, as shown by the assessment roll, is as follows: Real estate $631,323.78. Personal property $1,513,855.20. Total $2,145,178.98. The amount of taxes assessed against the above property is $59,253.04.—Sun-Democrat.

The coal field in northeastern Arizona covers an area of 9000 square miles. The most western point at which this field is worked is at Gallup, New Mexico. Most all of this field in Arizona is covered by the reservations of the Moqui and Mojave Indians, and is of the cretaceous formation. These coals are lignites. In Gila and Graham counties, also, coal has been found of a good quality.

Attorney General Frazier has submitted an opinion, holding that the recent rule promulgated by the Sanitary Commission to the effect that all the calves, either slaughtered or shipped, must be branded unless accompanied by their mothers, is law, and that cattlemen and others must comply with it.

Gov. M. H. McCord has pardoned William Johnson and Isaac Aldridge, sentenced to the penitentiary from Apache county Dec. 10th, 1897, to one year for grand larceny. The pardon to take effect one day before the expiration of the sentence, so as to restore their citizenship.

During the heavy rain of last Sunday night Mr. Reay of Thatcher lost 500 head of sheep by a cloud burst at Spring Canon above Clarsons lumber yard. The water was hip deep when he packed his little boy out. He lost his entire camp outfit. He has our sympathy.—Trailer.

James Dunham, the California murderer, has been arrested at Santa Rosalie, in the Arizpe district, Mexico, by a Pinkerton detective. Trouble is expected in extraditing him as he was preparing to take out papers of allegiance to the Mexican government.

The body of Felix Barry was discovered in the San Francisco river near Clifton. His body had floated over four miles from the place where he was accidentally drowned. He was about fifty years old, and has been prospecting for the last eighteen months for D. H. Moffat, the Denver millionaire.

A cowboy who arrived in the city yesterday says that the Apaches are committing depredations in the neighborhood of the Superstition mountains. He says that he was shot at by a small band of the renegades, and that he returned the fire wounding one of the Indians. He is chary of having his identity made known, fearing action against him by the government.—Gazette.

A carload of honey, the last for this season, was shipped from here last night, consigned to Baltimore. The total shipments of this season amount to thirteen cars or a net weight of 380,000. Owing to unfavorable conditions in the early part of the season the production did not come up to that of last year and the shipments show a falling off of 40,000 pounds.—Tempe News.

The hoisting engine of the Black Warrior Copper company, in Webster gulch, was blown to pieces with giant powder on Monday. The damage done will amount to fully $2,000, the engine being completely wrecked. No clue has been discovered pointing directly to the perpetrators of the crime. It is however supposed to have been done by some discharged employe.

Late Thursday afternoon a party of cowboys were driving a bunch of cattle past the insane asylum and one of the patients ran to the hedge fence to see the cattle pass by. One of the steers separated from the herd and jumping the fence took after the inmate and before he could get out of the way the animal had him pinned to the ground. It was sometime before the cowboys could rope and tie the animal, but fortunately the victim was not badly injured although much frightened.—Gazette.

The Safford Milling company has made an estimate of the grain raised in the Gila valley this year. It has the correct figures given in by every thrasher operated in the valley from Thomas to San Jose. When added up it is shown that there was 5,300,000 pounds of wheat and 2,600,000 pounds of barley ground in the valley this year. Wheat is now selling at $1.25 per cental and barley at $1. The revenue to the valley from the above items alone would be $95,250. The mills in the valley have already handled about 3,000,000 pounds of grain this year.—Republican.

Something to Depend On:

M. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones and & Son, Cowden, Ill. in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Sold at Holbrook, Ariz., at F. J. Wattson.
